

ATTORNEY

Georginne Dudash

303-295-9809

georginne.dudash@moyewhite.com

Georginne counsels businesses and individuals through various aspects of real estate transactions, including acquisitions, dispositions, development, and leasing. She has represented clients with commercial, residential, and mixed-use development projects, including multi-site and multi-state transactions. Her many years of experience includes reviewing, drafting and negotiating purchase and sale agreements, leases, easements and restrictive covenants. She earned her undergraduate degree from the University of Wyoming and her law degree from the Sturm College of Law at the University of Denver.

In her spare time, Georginne enjoys singing, fishing, gardening, and spending time with family and friends in Colorado, Wyoming, and Texas.

PUBLICATIONS AND ARTICLES

- Co-Author
“Understanding Additional Agreements in Commercial Leasing Deals”
Denver Business Journal, February 2009
- Author
“The Landlord’s Perspective on Ten Commercial Lease Provisions”
Colorado Real Estate Journal, March 2008

AREAS OF CONCENTRATION

Acquisitions and Dispositions
Real Estate Development
Real Estate Leasing

EDUCATION

University of Denver, J.D.,
Order of St. Ives Denver
University Law Review,
Managing Editor
University of Wyoming, B.A.

CREDENTIALS

Best Lawyers® Ones to Watch:
Real Estate Law, 2024

AFFILIATIONS

Colorado Bar Association
Denver Bar Association
Wyoming Bar Association

(cont'd)

ADMITTED

Colorado

Wyoming